

INVISIBLE COLOR BOOK

for Boys & Girls

July 9, 1922

THE FAN SHIP

BETTY was a little girl who lived in a big white house beside the great blue Sea. On a sunny afternoon she was sitting by the water on the sand, with her nice new fan to keep her cool. As she looked a tiny sail appeared far away on the sea. It seemed to her just like her new fan, and she thought what a fine sail hers would make for a little boat. And she fell asleep to dream of her Fan Ship. She spread the fan for the sail and placed it in the prow and sat on a lovely cushion to ride. The Mermaids came to her dream ship with the birds to admire her pretty sail, with its wonderful colors. Use a brush and plain water to paint carefully between the lines. The colors will appear as you paint.

EDITOR'S NOTE—Look at the pages of the book before coloring or making the cut-out. Rinse the brush often while painting to prevent the colors running together. Copyright, 1922, World Color Printing Co., St. Louis, Mo.